

MEDIA ADVISORYDate sent: September 21, 2009Date of event: September 22, 2009Algonquin launches new corporate training facility with a panel discussion on workplace training strategies

A discussion panel, representing the public and private sectors, will help Algonquin College launch a new downtown training facility with a conversation on workplace training. The new facility will provide company-specific corporate training options to meet immediate and future needs unique to each company. This new centre is a part of the College's new training strategy, which positions Algonquin as the trainer of choice for public and private sector employers. Algonquin College is the largest supplier of Corporate Training in the National Capital Region.

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610

Who: Robert Gillett, President of Algonquin CollegeTim Vizena, President, National Capital Heavy Construction Association (NCHCA).Kim Hibbeln, National Director, Enforcement Branch, Enforcement Services, Environment Canada.Lieutenant-Colonel Steven Gregory, Commanding Officer Mapping and Charting Establishment Commandant School of Military Mapping, National DefenceHolly Burns, RN, BScN, BA, M.Ed, Clinical Director, Surgical, Ambulatory and Emergency Services, Queensway Carleton Hospital.What: Panel discussion on workplace training to launch new downtown corporate training facility.When: September 22, 2009
11:30 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.Where: Constitution Square
340 Albert St, 11th Floor
Ottawa, ON
K1R 1A4
(Google Map)

-30-

For more information, contact:David Hall
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 2091
Cell: (613) 220-7796