

MEDIA ADVISORY

Date sent: January 12, 2009

Date of event: January 13, 2009

Second career for Algonquin College graduate is taking off with provincial aviation award

Recent Aviation Management graduate Ken Wright will receive the Dave Edward/Tom Jerrard Award from the Air Canada Pilots Association (ACPA) at a ceremony at Algonquin College on Tuesday, January 13. Wright, who currently works at the Ottawa Flying Club, was chosen by his peers for this award that recognizes the best-rounded aviation student demonstrating effective flight management skills, a positive attitude and team work in safety and problem solving.

Aviation is a second career for Wright as he previously spent 10 years working at the Chrysler Canada plant in Windsor, Ontario.

Who: Ken Wright, Graduate, Aviation Management program, Algonquin College
Claude Brulé, Executive Dean, Faculty of Technology and Trades Algonquin College
Andy Wilson, President of the Air Canada Pilots' Association

What: Algonquin College Graduate wins provincial aviation award

When: Tuesday, January 13, 2009
2:30 pm - 3:30 pm

Where: Advanced Technology Centre ('T' Building)
Room T102
Algonquin College
1385 Woodroffe Avenue

-30-

For more information, contact:
David Hall
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 2091
Cell: (613) 220-7796

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610