

MEDIA ADVISORYDate sent: November 23, 2009Date of event: November 25, 2009Algonquin College launches Ontario's first
Kitchen and Bath Design Program

Industry leaders in kitchen and bath design will gather at Algonquin College Wednesday, November 25, to celebrate the launch of Ontario's first Kitchen and Bath Design Graduate Certificate program. Set to begin in January 2010, this program is tailored to industry professionals and recent design graduates looking to specialize in residential design of kitchens and bathrooms. Graduates from this program will fill the industry need for kitchen and bath specialists.

The event will feature a program overview, employer remarks to outline the industry need, and comments from potential students. Program is pending government approval.

Who: Giuseppe Castrucci, Vice President, Laurysen Kitchens
Sandra Gibbons, Coordinator/Professor, Kitchen and Bath Design Program, Algonquin College
Russ Mills, Executive Dean, Faculty of Arts, Media and Design, Algonquin College

What: Launch of Ontario's first Kitchen and Bath Design Program

When: November 25, 2009
3:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Best Time: 3:15 – 3:45 p.m.

Where: Marketplace Food Court, Salon 'D'
('D' Building)
1385 Woodroffe Avenue
Ottawa, ON K2G 1V8

-30-

For more information, contact:
David Hall
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 2091

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610

Cell: (613) 220-7796