Algonquin College Celebrates Cultural Diversity

Algonquin College will host its 10th Annual Celebration of Cultures on Wednesday, March 14, 2007, in the Marketplace Food Court on Algonquin's Woodroffe Campus. This event is held every year to celebrate the College's culturally-diverse student population and features food, cultural artifacts, tourism information, culinary delights and entertainment.

Over 30 embassies, high commissions and international organizations will be in attendance. Entertainment will consist of dancers, singers and a martial arts demonstration that will complement the numerous booths and displays.
