

MEDIA ADVISORY

Date sent: November 28, 2006
Date of event: November 29, 2006

Algonquin Hosts Christmas Flower Show Opening Night Celebration

Algonquin College's second-year Horticulture and Florist students will be hosting their annual Christmas Show entitled Plantasia, starting with opening night celebrations on November 29, and running until December 31.

Wayne Rostad, Ottawa singer and host of CBC's On the Road Again, will be on hand to launch the evening's event with a song and participate in the ribbon-cutting ceremony to officially open this year's show.

Plantasia will be open from Monday to Friday, 1:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Admission is free. Parking is free in lots 8, 9 and 12 after 5:00 p.m. and free all day on weekends.

Who: Russell Mills, Executive Dean of the Faculty of Arts, Media and Design
Wayne Rostad, Ottawa singer and host of CBC's On the Road Again
Second-year students from Algonquin College's Horticulture and Florist programs.

What: Christmas Flower Show Opening Night Celebrations

When: Wednesday, November 29, 2006
7:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Where: Algonquin College
Woodroffe Campus Greenhouse
'M' Building
1385 Woodroffe Avenue

-30-

For more information, contact:

Andrew McKelvey
Communications Officer
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: 220-7796

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610