Algonquin Alumni Network for Success

Algonquin College is holding its seventh Annual Career Networking Fair and Alumni Association Annual General Meeting on Feb. 15, 2005. The networking fair features “dress for success” fashion shows, this year hosted by alumnae Sandy Sharkey from 93.9 BOB FM and Sherry Thurig, President of the Algonquin College Alumni Association, while Corel Centre Executive Chef Orazio LaManna, also an alumnus, will present a “Cooking for Success” demonstration. The event is an opportunity for alumni to meet more than 50 area employers, submit resumé, get up-to-date information on the job market, and network with the business community.
