What do You Want to be When You Grow Up? Algonquin College helps high school students answer age old question at College Week events

During College Week, thousands of students will have an opportunity to learn about today's career opportunities when Algonquin College holds first-ever Career Expos at five Ottawa high schools. The Expos will feature interactive displays from Algonquin programs, and College staff and students will be on hand to share information and answer questions. Each host high school is inviting five other schools in their area to attend their event.
