

MEDIA ADVISORY

Date sent: September 14, 2004

Date of event: September 15, 2004

Hollywood Comes to Algonquin College

Ottawa native Kevin Martel, a digital animation artist now working for Industrial Light and Magic (ILM), will be sharing his insights into how to succeed in Hollywood with students in the Algonquin College animation programs. During his career with ILM, the famed George Lucas special effects firm, Mr. Martel has worked on a number of major feature films including the Star Wars series and the Mummy.

Who: Kevin Martel, digital animation artist with Industrial Light and Magic

What: Shares Hollywood insights with Algonquin College animation students

When: Wednesday, September 15, 2004
4 to 6 p.m.

Where: Algonquin College
Woodroffe Campus
Cafeteria, Salon A

-30-

Parking: Marked media vehicles will not be ticketed anywhere on campus unless parked in a fire lane or handicapped parking zone. One media guest parking spot is available in the meter parking area in front of C building (lot by the flagpole).

For more information, contact:

Jeannette Smith
Manager, Media Relations
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: 220-7796

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations,

Communications,

Alumni and Development

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610