

MEDIA ADVISORY

Date sent: November 25, 2004
Date of event: November 29, 2004

Lieutenant Governor in Ottawa to Present Award to Algonquin College President

Ontario's Lieutenant Governor, the Honourable James K. Bartleman, will be in Ottawa on Monday, November 29 to present the 2004 Lieutenant Governor's Medal of Distinction in Public Administration to Robert Gillett, the President of Algonquin College. The Medal, presented jointly by the Lieutenant Governor and the Hamilton, National Capital and Toronto Regional Groups of the Institute of Public Administration, recognizes leadership, innovation, creativity, accomplishments and dedication to the profession of public administration and to the community.

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations

and Communications

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610

Who: The Honourable James K. Bartleman, Lieutenant Governor of Ontario
Robert Gillett, President, Algonquin College
Senators, MPs and MPPs
Bob Chiarelli, Mayor of the City of Ottawa
National President and Board Members of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada
Leaders of the Ottawa business, education and charitable communities

What: Presentation of the Lieutenant Governor's Medal of Distinction in Public Administration to Robert Gillett

When: Monday, November 29, 2004
5 p.m.

Where: Council Chambers
Ottawa City Hall
110 Laurier Avenue West
Ottawa

-30-

For more information, contact:

Jeannette Smith
Manager, Media Relations
Algonquin College
Office: (613) 727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: 220-7796

Caryl Arundel
Toronto Group of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada
(416) 239-8294