Algonquin College Foundation to Receive Nissan Donation

The Algonquin College Foundation and the College's Transportation Technology Centre will receive a donation from three Ottawa New Car Dealer Association Nissan dealership members. Donations from Tony Graham and Jean Parent of Walkley Nissan and of Paul Giacomini of 417 Nissan will total $75,000 and will go to the Foundation's Transportation Technology Campaign.

Following the donation of $75,000 from Toyota dealers on April 27, the donation from Nissan dealers will mark the second of its kind for the Algonquin Foundation this week, bringing the total donated from Ottawa New Car Dealers Association members to $150,000 in three days.
