

Media Advisory

Date Sent: June 21, 2004

Date of Event: June 23 and 24, 2004

Algonquin College Hosts Province-wide Professional Development Conference in new Transportation Technology Building

The Algonquin College School of Transportation and Building Trades is hosting the annual Ontario colleges' Motive Power Professional Development (PD) Conference in its new transportation technology centre. This year, the colleges will be entered in a draw for a new Chevrolet Impala donated by General Motors for use as a learning tool by the winning college.

Who: Jack Erjavec, keynote speaker acknowledged across North America as the leading author of automotive manuals and textbooks
120 college motive power instructors from across Ontario
Technology teachers from Ottawa-area high schools

What: PD conference featuring seminars, tool displays, electrolab

When: Wednesday, June 23, 9:00 a.m. - 4:15 p.m.
Thursday, June 24, 9:00 a.m. - 1:30 p.m.
Keynote speaker: Wed., June 23, 9:00 a.m., Room C144

Where: Algonquin College
Woodroffe Campus
Transportation Technology Building S

For more information contact:

Jeannette Smith
Manager, Media Relations
Algonquin College
(613) 727-4723 ext. 5450
Cell: (613) 220-7796

Martin Restoule
Coordinator, Motive Power Trades
Algonquin College
(613) 727-4723 ext. 5153

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations,

Communications,

Alumni and Development

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610