

January 10, 2003

ALGONQUIN COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF THE CARIBOO STRIKE ARTICULATION AGREEMENT FOR ADVENTURE PROGRAM

Algonquin College in the Ottawa Valley has entered into an articulation agreement with University College of the Cariboo in Kamloops, British Columbia that will permit graduates of Algonquin's Outdoor Adventure and Adventure Naturalist programs to gain advance standing in UCC's 4-year Bachelor of Tourism Management degree.

1385 Woodroffe Avenue

Ottawa, Ontario

Canada

K2G 1V8

Public Relations,

Communications,

Alumni and Development

Department

Office: 613-727-4723

ext. 7664

Fax: 613-727-7610

Event: Presentation by representative of the University College of the Cariboo to Outdoor Adventure and Adventure Naturalist students at the Pembroke Campus of Algonquin College in the Ottawa Valley who are interested in pursuing a university degree from UCC.

When: Monday, January 13, 2003
12 noon

Where: Room 321 at the Pembroke Campus.
315 Pembroke Street East
(Media, please report to Room 213 by 11:50 am)

Why: University College of the Cariboo is one of the most respected adventure tourism post-secondary institutes in Canada. This articulation agreement will benefit graduates of the Algonquin College adventure programs for many years to come.

Note: A news release will be provided to the media at the presentation. There will also be an opportunity to interview the representative from UCC as well as academic faculty from Algonquin College and students.

For more information, please contact:

Jamie Bramburger
Manager of Community and Student Affairs
Algonquin College in the Ottawa Valley
(613) 735-4700, ext. 2756

