

interact with others in groups or teams in ways that contribute to effective working relationships and the achievement of goals.

IDEAS "the fundamentals" "basic facts" "elemental concepts" "discrete skills"	CONNECTIONS "among the basic concepts" "between what was learned and what they already know"	EXTENSIONS "use new learning in novel ways, apart from the learning situation" "internalize the learning to such a degree that it helps to define them as people."
uses terminology related to group work accurately. identifies problems that can occur within group or team situations. lists the common roles/tasks needed for any team to function effectively. fulfills their role as a team member by following given guidelines.	compares and contrasts the roles and tasks of groups or team members in a variety of contexts and situations. matches the composition of groups or teams to an analysis of required tasks and team resources. anticipates situations that can potentially lead to conflict within groups. adapts strategies to accomplish team tasks and goals. assumes a variety of roles based on the needs of the group.	evaluates a completed group task, identifying possible problems and making recommendations for future group work. predicts the emergence of successes and/or challenges based on group characteristics. recommends and applies strategies for solving group conflict. leads groups and teams in dynamic situations. assumes accountability for self and others in achieving the team's outcomes.