

Remote Access to Library e-Resources 09/10

Who can access library e-Resources remotely (off-campus)?

Current student, faculty or staff members with an active library account.

What do I need to access library e-Resources remotely?

You need a current Algonquin College ID or library issued card that has been authenticated with your campus library. Once your account has been activated you will be issued a login and PIN. The login and PIN are required to access the e-resources remotely.

What is my login and PIN?

Full-Time Students

If you have a current Algonquin photo ID card your library account number is the letter A (For Algonquin) followed by your student number. (The 9 digit number found on your student card). Your PIN is the last four digits of your student number. Example: A040123456

Part-Time and Distance Education Students

If you have a library issued card with no photo (orange or green card) your account number is the 13 digit bar code on your card. The PIN is the last 4 numbers of your student number.

What types of collections are available?

The library subscribes to various collections that support the curriculum offered at Algonquin. Content includes everything from journals to magazines, newspapers, statistics and other specialized collections of materials such as case law.

How can I ask questions about my account?

You can ask about your account at any campus library in person or by telephone during operating hours or you can e-mail us at lrc@algonquincollege.com. (contact Info: <http://algonquincollege.com/lrc/library/contactus.htm>)
