SPECIAL THANKS TO WILL LUSBY, CANADIAN MONOPOLY CHAMPION & TEAM

Algonquin College would like to extend a very special thank you to Canadian Monopoly Champion Will Lusby for helping us raise $65,000 for our new Ottawa Valley campus.

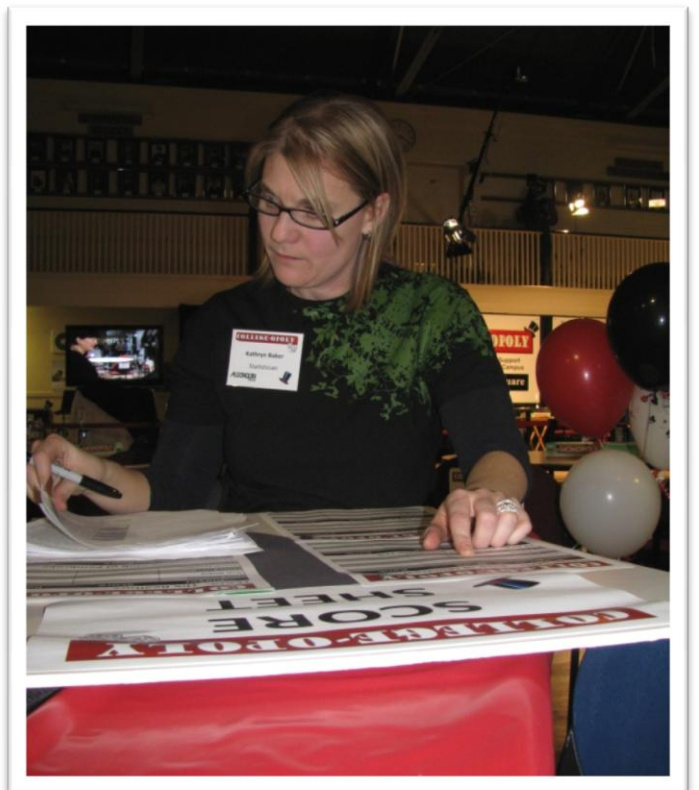

We also want to express much appreciation to Will Lusby's team of judges, commentators, and statisticians who travelled with him from Ottawa to Pembroke to help Algonquin College make this event such a success.

Thanks to:

Kathryn Baker, Judge and Statistician (and First Lady of Monopoly)
Karen Charron, Banker and Statistician
Jean-Guy Brin, Judge and Commentator of Championship Game
Richard Hautcoeur, Judge and Statistician
Craig Turpin, Judge and Statistician

Thanks to Our Extra Volunteers!

Thanks to Briana Donnelly at the 'Friendly Games' station and Algonquin College Police Foundations students who provided security: James Klein, Quinn Barry, Terrence Lee, Sarah Schimmens.

Thanks to Dr. Christy Natsis, Jennifer Madigan and Marc Poirier for their demonstration game duties.

A special thank you to Lt. David Foohey for donating his time for the event, and to Lt.-Col. Keith Rudderham and CFB Petawawa for allowing us to use the Pembroke Armouries for College-Opoly.

And finally . . . thanks to the Capital Campaign Committee!

Photo 18: Marie Mask, right, Capital Campaign Administrator, congratulates Lisa Edmonds for her contribution to the success of the event. Lisa is one of the members of the Capital Campaign Committee who helped with the College-opoly tournament. Other committee members include: Lt. Col. Keith Rudderham, Dawn Dubé, C.B. Pappin, Chris Kelly, Mark Huckabone, Chair, and Fred Blackstein, Honorary Chair.

The committee's goal is to raise $2.5 million for the new campus through a number of fundraising events and activities.

The groundbreaking for the new campus is planned for April 2011 and students will start at the new campus in the fall of 2012.
