

Join Social Service Worker/Social Work Professors from Colleges across Canada at a one day meeting with speakers and workshops

Anti-oppressive Structural Social Work Practice
Ideas/Inspiration/Action-
Classroom and Field
Key Note Speaker:
Ben Carniol

Professor Emeritus at the School of Social Work at Ryerson University and author of Case Critical Ben Carniol has focused on social justice, social services and social change for over 40 years

Tuesday May 13, 2008

9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Perth, Ontario

Code's Mill Banquet Hall
17 Wilson Street East, Perth, Ontario

Afternoon Workshop Themes:

Advocacy Diversity, Activism

One workshop will feature speaker JoAnne Brooks from Women's Sexual Assault Centre of Renfrew County.

JoAnne has been a rural community violence against women activist and educator for more than 20 years. The title of her workshop is "Creating Rural Rainbow Connections-with PRIDE-in Renfrew County".

Pre-registration required
by: Tuesday May 6th:

Registration Fee:

$30 per person
$10 student/person on a limited income
Fee includes Lunch

Registration forms available at www.algonquincollege.com/perth

Or

Contact Tracy Lancaster at 613-267-2859 push #1
and extension #5620

ALGONQUIN COLLEGE