Many programs have developed a common “look and feel” for their courses that includes a similar navigation. The example below reflects Algonquin’s AA42 Learning Management System Policy.

NOTE: Not all of the links in the diagram need to be included in the course. For “Learning Content” and “Interactive Activities”, you only need links to the content and tool links of feature you are using in your course.