

Rosser Boardroom and Art Gallery

Call for submissions

The Rosser Boardroom and Art Gallery, is inviting all Algonquin College employees to submit works of art to this unique space. The Rosser Boardroom and Art Gallery, located on the 5th floor of C Building at the Ottawa Campus of Algonquin College, is primarily looking for submissions of paintings (variety of mediums) and photography but will be accepting three-dimensional artwork as well. Submissions will be on display for approximately one year.

Please note: All submissions, with the exception of three-dimensional artwork must be framed.

The Gallery's mission is to create a space that facilitates the Algonquin College community's involvement in art by showcasing the many artistic talents of College employees. Artists do not need any previous experience in showing their work.
