

How Do I Know If I Need to Make Mapping Revisions?

Program maps only need to be reviewed and revised if the curriculum of the program has changed in specific ways, such as:

- Courses moving levels,
- The addition or removal of courses, or
- If there has been an identification that the emphasis of a course has changed with respect to the achievement of the learning outcomes.

Minor updates to courses annually should not require mapping revisions.

Thank you!