

TRANSITIONING TO LEADERSHIP

2 DAYS

Transition into your new leadership role faster and equip yourself with the skills you need to create enthusiastic and confident employees.

HOW YOU WILL BENEFIT

One of the greatest career challenges a person may face is transitioning from an individual contributor to a first-time manager. Some issues include understanding your new job expectations, projecting confidence in a professional manner, prioritizing your tasks, and managing relationships in the workplace.

This 2-day workshop will help you transition into your new role faster, equip you with foundational organizational and people skills so you can lead with confidence.

WORKSHOP DESCRIPTION

- What does it take to be an authentic?
- Why do we want to be authentic leaders?
- What are the benefits for the employees, organization, and you?
- Maintain a supportive working environment that inspires, motivates, and empowers your team
- Display and nurture high emotional intelligence
- Apply feedback concepts, skills, and techniques to increase positive behaviours and performance
- Increase your willingness to delegate
- Make planning part of your regular routine and activities consistent with your goals
- Strategies to build understanding between disputes and to engage in problem-solving

This workshop includes discussions, case studies, role play, tools, and reflective exercises to develop skills that you can apply directly in your workplace.

ATTEND THIS WORKSHOP IF YOU

- Are a new leader or are transitioning into a leadership role