Sunlife.ca website has been updated

The Sun Life website – www.sunlife.ca – has been recently updated. The redesigned website has a bold new design, refreshed content and a new way to sign-in. Here are a few highlights:

Easier to sign-in

You will now be able to sign in to your member account right from sunlife.ca – from the homepage and from anywhere else across the site. If you prefer to sign in through mysunlife.ca you still can, Sun Life has simplified the sign-in screen, helping to get you where you need to go faster.

New design

Visitors to the site will enjoy a fresh, modern design, a simplified navigation and refreshed content. Be sure to look for a new life stages section to help navigate your financial options – whether you're 'Starting out', 'Building' for the future, 'Pre-retirement' or in 'Retirement' – Sun Life is making it easier to plan for a brighter tomorrow through every life stage.

Refreshed content

The information found on the new sunlife.ca will showcase planning and advice that brings together relevant lifestyle articles from Brighter Life – Sun Life's award winning content marketing platform - as well as tools and calculators to navigate you through complex topics.

Information on the go

The redesign of sunlife.ca includes implementing a new, responsive platform that means you will be able to learn about your financial planning needs wherever and whenever on your desktop, mobile devices and tablet.

What about other Sun Life websites?

You will still be able sign into your member account from mysunlife.ca. Sun Life is phasing out the BrighterLife.ca website, but all the great Brighter Life articles can be accessed on sunlife.ca through the new Learn & Plan section.

Help signing in and customer support content related to submitting claims or printing a coverage card, is available through the Customer Care Centre at 1-800-361-6212.
