

ALGONQUIN COLLEGE

EMPOWER YOUR TEACHING STAFF TO CREATE AN ACTIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT

Partner with Algonquin College to offer your faculty high impact training in applied teaching methods and proven assessment strategies that will provide your students with an innovative and successful learning experience.

We will work with your institution to customize a faculty training program that meets your individual requirements.

- Send your staff to Ottawa to gain hands-on experience in an innovative and experiential educational setting
- Work with our experienced instructors to deliver workshops and programs in your home country
- Improve your programs by exposing your faculty to embedded applied and experiential learning activities in all areas of instruction.
- Enjoy the freedom and flexibility of online training OR provide a hybrid program that includes all three options.

Six Popular Training Modules that Can Be Combined to Create Customized Training or Work with us to Create a Completely Customized and Needs Based Program

Teacher Training

Explore principles of adult learning, active learning, and how to create positive learning environments and sustain student motivation and engagement in online or face-to-face/mobile contexts. Participants will learn practical strategies for designing and facilitating learning activities – as well as how to select, design, and use tools for evaluating learning.

Applied Research Education

Teach your faculty how to develop successful Applied Research relationships with industry and community organizations and enhance engagement and future job prospects for your students while providing added value to the institution. Your teachers and staff will work with Algonquin College experts to help develop applied research and business development models and specific projects that can be implemented and delivered by your organization when your faculty return home.

English Language Instruction

Enable your faculty to upgrade their English in a Canadian classroom setting on campus in Ottawa – or online within an interactive real-time web environment with a live instructor. Our faculty can also create customized language courses for groups of professionals who wish to master the English language specific to their areas of technical expertise. All courses are taught by Canadian certified Algonquin College language professors.

ALGONQUIN COLLEGE

English Language Instructor Training

Give your English as Foreign Language / Second Language (EFL/ESL) teachers the opportunity to deepen their understanding of proven EFL teaching methodologies and theories of second language acquisition. Participants will develop teaching materials, create lesson plans, participate in ESL classroom observations, conduct micro-teaching sessions with colleagues, and practice-teach in Algonquin ESL classes while being mentored by Algonquin teachers. Delivery of the course can be integrated with other training modules to design a customized training package.

Online Education Training Certificates and Courses

Experience the flexibility and affordability of the education certification programs we offer online, such as Online Learning Design and Development and Contemporary Educational Practices. Faculty may choose to pursue the full certificate program online or may choose to take individual course modules based on their interest and needs.

Our online courses can be integrated into a comprehensive training program that can be delivered on our campus in Ottawa or at your home institution by visiting Algonquin College faculty.

Algonquin College Faculty Mentoring Program

Send your teachers and staff to Ottawa to integrate with our faculty and work one-on-one with Algonquin faculty mentors working in aligned academic disciplines. Our instructors will introduce your staff to Canadian college life, including applied research, teaching practice with an active learning/adult learning approach, college governance, and student success and support services.

The personal relationships and networks that result from our mentoring program can develop strong intercollege relations with your institution.

Why Choose Algonquin?

With over 175 programs, 20,000 full time students, and three vibrant campuses in the Ottawa region, Algonquin is one of Canada's largest colleges. We are a global leader in developing programs that use alternative and innovative training methods, and are internationally renowned for delivering world-class training with a focus on both theoretical learning and real-world applied skills development.

We have extensive experience in delivering high-quality training internationally, including delivery in China, India, Montenegro, Tanzania, Thailand, Kuwait, and Saudi Arabia.
