Welcome to Algonquin College!

Congratulations! We look forward to meeting you in Ottawa soon and helping you prepare to achieve both personal and academic success. Please read the information below carefully and complete all checklist items to help you prepare for your arrival and studies.

Next Steps

- Apply for your study and work permit
  Review your program requirements and apply for all permits required. For more information visit: www.cic.gc.ca

- Plan your travel
  Plan your travel to Ottawa at least 2 weeks before you start your studies to ensure you have time to get settled before classes start. For important dates check the academic calendar on the Registrar’s Office webpage: http://www.algonquincollege.com/ro/

- Register for International Student Orientation
  It is very important for you to attend International Student Orientation. For information about International Orientation, visit the International Education Centre webpage: http://www.algonquincollege.com/international/orientation-2018/first-year-students/

Before you Arrive

- Prepare for Port of Entry
  Ensure you have your passport, study permit approval letter, Letter of Acceptance form Algonquin College, and any other required documents. - Learn more about Ottawa
  Get to know your new home away from home, including information about weather and transportation. www.ottawa.ca

When you Arrive

- Explore Ottawa and Algonquin College
  Start making yourself at home and come visit Algonquin College to see where you’ll be studying, http://www.algonquincollege.com/international/360-virtual-tour/

- Get set up at Algonquin College

- Set up banking and health insurance
  Find a Canadian bank with a branch close to where you are living. Algonquin College will provide you with health insurance. You’ll receive an email within 3 weeks from the start of term.

- Prepare for the Canadian classroom

- Attend Orientation
  Orientation is very important. It will help you get settled at Algonquin and make new friends! Be sure to attend both College Orientation and International Student Orientation.
