

Harm Reduction Training Courses

- Unpacking Addiction $199.00 + taxes
- Motivational Interviewing $199.00 + taxes
- OR enroll in both courses and pay only $350.00 + taxes

Algonquin College’s Waterfront Campus in Pembroke has partnered with Rideauwood Addiction and Family Services to offer two separate day-long training sessions to support front line workers in better understanding addictions and helping them engage with someone who is struggling with addiction. These sessions are open to all adults over 18 years of age, and will be particularly helpful for people who work in health or social agencies, human resources, community organizations, youth centres, and/or school boards. More information on these courses is available on our website at <http://www.algonquincollege.com/pembroke/mental-health-training/>.

REGISTRATION FORM

Please print this form and complete both sides.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY:

- Applicants are registered on a first come, first served basis. If the course has filled for the date chosen, the organization or individual will be contacted to select an alternate date.
- Both the Unpacking Addiction and Motivational Interviewing training is offered in a collaborative learning environment that includes the presentation of information by the facilitators, role plays, group discussion, videos, etc.
- All students must attend the entire day of training to receive recognition for completing the training.
- Students do not need to complete the Unpacking Addiction training to participate in the Motivational Interviewing session. However, it is recommended students take both sessions, if they have not been directly involved in supporting people with addictions in their professional career.
- Algonquin College reserves the right to postpone training if there are insufficient registrants.
