

“Working Towards Reconciliation: Lessons for Early Years Providers”

Join us for an evening with Rebecca Sargent and Donna Dubie for a learning module to support Early Years Educators:

- Learn how to provide more comprehensive care that promotes the inclusion and dignity of First Peoples.
- Context, history and issues First People families are facing.
- Language and terminology to use.
- Ways to change our current system and how we can provide more comprehensive care that promotes the inclusion and dignity of First Peoples.

Join us on Thursday November 9th from 6:00-8:30pm at Algonquin College-Perth Campus

7 Craig St, Perth, On

Light dinner will be provided as well as a door prize.

This is a FREE Worksop. We welcome:

- ❖ Perth Campus E.C.E students
- ❖ R.E.C.E's in Lanark County
- ❖ Kindergarten teaching teams
- ❖ Ontario Early Years Centre in Lanark County, as well as playgroup facilitators.

We encourage at least one educator from each learning environment to attend. Workshops all go towards your CPL for the College of ECE.

Please register with Chelsey Coe at

ccoe@lanarkcounty.ca or at 613-267-4200 ext 2306

Registration closes Tuesday November 7th 2017

