1. The College will comply with FIPPA, which gives members of the general public a legal right to access certain information held by the College as an agency of the Government. FIPPA also gives individuals the right to access their own personal information and establishes standards to ensure that this information is protected.

2. Access to Information

2.1 Every person has the right to access a record or part of a record in the custody or under the control of the College unless the record or part of the record contains personal information or falls within one of the exemptions or exclusions listed below or provided for in FIPPA and the regulations.

2.2 A person seeking access to a record shall:

   2.2.1 make a request in writing to the FOI Coordinator;
   2.2.2 provide sufficient detail to identify the record; and 2.2.3 pay the prescribed fee.

2.3 The College shall refuse to disclose personal information to any person other than the individual to whom the information relates except:

   2.3.1 upon the prior written request or consent of the individual; subject to the exemptions and exclusions set out in FIPPA;
   2.3.2 in compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of an individual; or 2.3.3 in accordance with the provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.

2.4 The College shall refuse to disclose a record:

   2.4.1 where the disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with a law enforcement matter;
   2.4.2 where the disclosure could reasonably be expected to reveal information received in confidence from another government body or its agencies;
   2.4.3 that reveals a trade secret or scientific, technical, commercial, financial, or labour relations information belonging to a third party;
   2.4.4 that contains information relating to specific tests, testing procedures or techniques that are used in the evaluation of students;
   2.4.5 that is subject to solicitor-client privilege; or 2.4.6 in accordance with any of the other exemptions or exclusions in FIPPA.

3. Collection, Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

3.1 Personal information shall not be collected unless it is expressly authorized by statute, used for purposes of law enforcement, or necessary to the proper administration of a lawfully authorized activity.

3.2 The College shall collect personal information necessary to accomplish the College’s academic and operational activities. The College collects and uses personal information for the following purposes:

3.2.1 recruitment, admission and registration, academic programs and evaluations, graduation
3.2.2 review, evaluation and improvement of academic and non-academic programs
3.2.3 financial assistance and awards
3.2.4 alumni, development and marketing activities
3.2.5 institutional planning, research and statistics
3.2.6 reporting to government agencies and professional licensing bodies
3.2.7 employment related matters
3.2.8 safety and security
3.2.9 promotion in its print electronic and internet publications.

3.3 In order to facilitate these purposes and to develop, maintain and improve appropriate programs, policies and recruitment strategies, measure program performance, and evaluate future program needs, the College may aggregate or link personal information in different databases over which it has custody or control.

3.4 The College remains accountable for personal information under its control, including personal information which is disclosed to third parties for processing. The College will use contractual or other means to protect personal information that has been transferred to service providers for processing.

3.5 Personal information collected by the College may be collected, used and/or disclosed in other jurisdictions for processing, including in some cases to service providers located in the United States of America.

3.6 Personal information shall only be collected by the College directly from the individual to whom the information relates unless:

3.6.1 the information is collected by a third party and disclosed to the College with the consent of the individual if required and in accordance with that third party’s privacy policies
3.6.2 the individual authorizes another manner of collection;
3.6.3 the information is collected for the purpose of determining suitability for an honour or award to recognize outstanding achievement or distinguished service;
3.6.4 the information is collected for the purpose of the conduct of a proceeding or a possible proceeding before a court of tribunal;
3.6.5 the information is collected for the purpose of law enforcement; or
3.6.6 otherwise in accordance with provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.

3.7 Where personal information is collected, the College shall inform the individual to whom the information relates of the following:

3.7.1 the legal authority for the collection;
3.7.2 the principal purpose(s) for which the information is intended to be used; and
3.7.3 the address and telephone number of an employee who can answer questions about the collection.

The College provides the information required by this section in a variety of ways, including through this policy, through Statements or notices posted on the College’s website, on application or other forms, or in the Student Handbook.

3.8 Individuals have a right to “opt out” or withdraw consent to some or all uses and/or disclosures of their personal information. Depending on the use or disclosure in question, opting out or withdrawing consent may impact the College’s ability to provide services to the individual, and may even prevent the individual from continuing as a student or employee of the College. The extent to which an opt-out request can be granted without impacting the College’s ability to provide services to the individual will be assessed on a case by case basis. Inquiries regarding opt-out and withdrawal of consent should be addressed to the FOI Coordinator.

3.9 The College shall not use personal information in its custody or under its control except:

3.9.1 where the person to whom the information relates has identified that information in particular and consented to its use;
3.9.2 for the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled or for a consistent purpose; or
3.9.3 otherwise in accordance with provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.

3.10 The College shall not disclose personal information in its custody or under its control except:

3.10.1 where the person to whom the information relates has identified that information in particular and consented to its disclosure;
3.10.2 for the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled or for a consistent purpose;
3.10.3 where the disclosure is made to a staff member, or consultant or agent engaged by the College, who needs the record in the performance of his or her duties and where disclosure is necessary and proper in the normal course of business;
3.10.4 in compassionate circumstances to facilitate contact with the spouse, a close relative or a friend of an individual who is injured, ill or deceased; or
3.10.5 otherwise in accordance with provisions of FIPPA and the regulations.

3.11 FIPPA permits the disclosure of personal information to an institution or a law enforcement agency in Canada to help an investigation undertaken with a view to a law enforcement proceeding or from which a law enforcement proceeding is likely to result. Any requests by police for information regarding students, faculty or staff are to be directed to the Freedom of Information & Privacy Protection Coordinator to determine what personal information can be released and maintain a record of the request.

3.12 FIPPA shall not preclude the College from giving access to information in response to an oral request or in the absence of a request. Any existing practice for the release of information, which is not personal in nature, may continue at the discretion of the responsible Vice President.
3.13 The College shall provide any person with a right of access upon request to his or her own personal information in the College’s possession, provided it can be described with sufficient specific information to make it reasonably retrievable by the College. The right of access is subject to the exemptions and exclusions prescribed in FIPPA and the regulations.

3.14 Every individual who is given access to personal information is entitled to:

   3.14.1 request correction of the personal information where the individual believes there is an error or omission therein; and
   3.14.2 require that a statement of disagreement be attached to the information reflecting any correction that was requested but not made.

3.15 All reasonable steps shall be taken to protect the security and confidentiality of personal information during its collection, storage, transportation, handling and destruction. All reasonable steps shall be taken to ensure that when personal information is to be destroyed, it is destroyed in such a way that it cannot be reconstructed or retrieved.

3.16 Information collected or created by the College shall be maintained in accordance with legislative or other record retention requirements.

3.17 The College at its discretion may choose to destroy records it is no longer obliged to protect and retain.

3.18 The College will provide information about its privacy policies and practices when and where appropriate, including by use of the Privacy Statement attached as Appendix 3.

4. Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Coordinator

4.1 Under FIPPA, the Chair of the Board of Governors, as designated head of the College, has the power and duty to make decisions on requests to access College records. The Board of Governors shall delegate these powers and duties to an officer of the College, the Vice President, Finance and Administration, who will act as the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Coordinator (FOI Coordinator).

4.2 The FOI Coordinator shall be responsible for the coordination of activities related to FIPPA.

4.3 The FOI Coordinator shall be the contact person for all public inquiries regarding FIPPA. The coordinator shall review all requests for access and rule on refusals, exemptions, transfers, severance and third party notification. The FOI coordinator will rely on his/her knowledge of FIPPA and seek legal counsel if necessary to ensure that the College is in compliance with the legislation.

4.4 Each area of the College shall name a Records Coordinator who will coordinate the search and the release of records to the FOI Coordinator, at his/her request. The areas of the College are:

   - President/Board of Governors
4.5 The FOI Coordinator shall document information on all requests received, the rationale for decisions on access and the disposition of the requests. A tracking and recording system will be used to ensure that all requests are processed within the established time limits and to generate the statistics for the annual report to the Commissioner.

4.6 The FOI Coordinator shall require the assistance of the President and the Vice Presidents to monitor compliance with the FIPPA privacy provisions and the notification requirements in FIPPA and in this Policy.

2.2 When an Area receives a request:
   a. conduct a search for the requested record;
   b. determine whether the information requested can be retrieved in whole or in part;
   c. estimate the time and cost needed to search for, retrieve and prepare the information for release;
   d. forward the information with a recommendation for or against disclosure to the President or appropriate Vice President/Executive Director for his/her approval.

2.3 Review the request, the information retrieved and the recommendation for the release of the information.

2.4 Provide the FOI Coordinator a written approval to release the information along with the information retrieved or a written refusal, along with the reasons within the thirty-day deadline.

3. Release of Information

3.1 If the search, preparation and photocopying of the records are needed, notify the requester in writing advising of the fee estimate. If the fee estimate is over $100.00, a deposit equal to 50% of the fee estimate will be required before processing the request. Upon completion of the request, inform the requestor of any additional amount outstanding. The records will not be released until payment has been received in full by the College.

3.2 If access to the records is to be provided, release the information to the requestor within 30 calendar days after a 'complete request' has been received by the College.

3.3 If access to the records is denied, within 30 calendar days after a 'complete request' has been received by the College send a letter to the requester indicating the reasons for refusal and his/her right of appeal to the Commissioner for review of the decision.

AD 02: APPENDIX 2

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY ACT EXCERPTS

Obligation to disclose

11. (1) Despite any other provision of this Act, a head shall, as soon as practicable, disclose any record to the public or persons affected if the head has reasonable and probable grounds to believe that it is in the public interest to do so and that the record reveals a grave environmental, health or safety hazard to the public. R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31, s. 11 (1).

Notice
(2) Before disclosing a record under subsection (1), the head shall cause notice to be given to any person to whom the information in the record relates, if it is practicable to do so. R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31, s. 11 (2).

Contents of notice
(3) The notice shall contain,
(a) a statement that the head intends to release a record or a part of a record that may affect the interests of the person;
(b) a description of the contents of the record or part that relate to the person; and
(c) a statement that if the person makes representations forthwith to the head as to why the record or part thereof should not be disclosed, those representations will be considered by the head. R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31, s. 11 (3).

Representations
(4) A person who is given notice under subsection (2) may make representations forthwith to the head concerning why the record or part should not be disclosed. R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31, s. 11 (4).

Personal Privacy

21. (1) A head shall refuse to disclose personal information to any person other than the individual to whom the information relates except,
(a) upon the prior written request or consent of the individual, if the record is one to which the individual is entitled to have access;
(b) in compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of an individual, if upon disclosure notification thereof is mailed to the last known address of the individual to whom the information relates;
(c) personal information collected and maintained specifically for the purpose of creating a record available to the general public;
(d) under an Act of Ontario or Canada that expressly authorizes the disclosure;
(e) for a research purpose if,
   (i) the disclosure is consistent with the conditions or reasonable expectations of disclosure under which the personal information was provided, collected or obtained,
   (ii) the research purpose for which the disclosure is to be made cannot be reasonably accomplished unless the information is provided in individually identifiable form, and
   (iii) the person who is to receive the record has agreed to comply with the conditions... relating to security and confidentiality prescribed by the regulations; or
(f) if the disclosure does not constitute an unjustified invasion of personal privacy. R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31, s. 21 (1).

Use of Personal Information

41. (1) An Institution shall not use personal information in its custody or under its control except,
   (a) where the person to whom the information relates has identified that information in particular and consented to its use;
   (b) for the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled or for a consistent purpose;
   (c) for a purpose for which the information may be disclosed to the institution under section 42 or under section 32 of the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act. R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31, s. 41.
   (d) subject to subsection (2), an educational institution may use personal information in its alumni records for the purpose of its own fundraising activities, if the personal information is reasonably necessary for the fundraising activities.

Notice on using personal information for fundraising

(2) In order to use personal information in its alumni records for the purpose of its own fundraising activities, an educational institution shall,
   (a) give notice to the individual to whom the personal information relates when the individual is first contacted for the purpose of soliciting funds for fundraising of his or her right to request that the information cease to be used for fundraising purposes;
   (b) periodically and in the course of soliciting funds for fundraising, give notice to the individual to whom the personal information relates of his or her right to request that the information cease to be used for fundraising purposes; and
   (c) periodically and in a manner that is likely to come to the attention of individuals who may be solicited for fundraising, publish a notice of the individual’s right to request that the individual’s personal information cease to be used for fundraising purposes. 2005, c. 28, Sched. F, s. 5 (2).

Discontinuing use of personal information

(3) An educational institution shall, when requested to do so by an individual, cease to use the individual’s personal information under clause (1) (d). 2005, c. 28, Sched. F, s. 5 (2).

Where Disclosure is permitted

42 (1). An institution shall not disclose personal information in its custody or under its control except,
   (a) in accordance with Part II;
   (b) where the person to whom the information relates has identified that information in particular and consented to its disclosure;
   (c) for the purpose for which it was obtained or compiled or for a consistent purpose;
   (d) where disclosure is made to an officer or employee of the institution who needs the record in the performance of his or her duties and where disclosure is necessary and proper in the discharge of the institution’s functions;
   (e) for the purpose of complying with an Act of the Legislature or an Act of Parliament or a treaty, agreement or arrangement thereunder;
   (f) where disclosure is by a law enforcement institution,
      (i) to a law enforcement agency in a foreign country under an arrangement, a written agreement or treaty or legislative authority, or
(ii) to another law enforcement agency in Canada;

(g) where disclosure is to an institution or a law enforcement agency in Canada to aid an investigation undertaken with a view to a law enforcement proceeding or from which a law enforcement proceeding is likely to result;
(h) in compelling circumstances affecting the health or safety of an individual if upon disclosure notification thereof is mailed to the last known address of the individual to whom the information relates;
(i) in compassionate circumstances, to facilitate contact with the spouse, a close relative or a friend of an individual who is injured, ill or deceased;
(j) to a member of the Legislative Assembly who has been authorized by a constituent to whom the information relates to make an inquiry on the constituent’s behalf or, where the constituent is incapacitated, has been authorized by the spouse, a close relative or the legal representative of the constituent;
(k) to a member of the bargaining agent who has been authorized by an employee to whom the information relates to make an inquiry on the employee’s behalf or, where the employee is incapacitated, has been authorized by the spouse, a close relative or the legal representative of the employee;
(l) to the responsible minister;
(m) to the Information and Privacy Commissioner;
(n) to the Government of Canada in order to facilitate the auditing of shared cost programs; and
(o) subject to subsection (2), an educational institution may disclose personal information in its alumni records for the purpose of its own fundraising activities if,
   (i) the educational institution and the person to whom the information is disclosed have entered into a written agreement that satisfies the requirements of subsection (3), and
   (ii) the personal information is reasonably necessary for the fundraising activities
Algonquin College Privacy Statement

Algonquin College (the “College”) is committed to protecting the privacy of your personal information. The College at all times collects, uses and discloses personal information in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Personal Privacy Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. F.31 (“FIPPA”), and under authority of the Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology Act, 2002, S.O. 2002, c. 8, Sched. F, and other relevant legislation. The College’s personal information handling practices are set out in more detail in its Policy AD02: Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy.

The College is required to disclose personal information such as Ontario Education Numbers, student characteristics and educational outcomes to the Minister of Training, Colleges and Universities under s. 15 of the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Act, R.S.O. 1990, Chapter M. 19, as amended. The ministry collects this data for purposes such as planning, allocating and administering public funding to colleges, universities and other post-secondary educational and training institutions and to conduct research and analysis, including longitudinal studies, and statistical activities conducted by or on behalf of the ministry for purposes that related to post-secondary education and training. Further information on how the Minister of Training, Colleges and Universities uses this personal information is available on the ministry’s website.

Further information on the collection and use of student-level enrolment-related data can be obtained from the Government of Ontario or Ministry of Training Colleges and Universities website http://www.tcu.gov.on.ca/ (English) or http://www.tcu.gov.on.ca/fre/ (French) or by writing to the Director, Postsecondary Finance Branch, Postsecondary Education Division, 7th Floor, Mowat Block, 900 Bay Street, Toronto, ON M7A 1L2

The College collects personal information at several points of contact. It collects personal information from prospective students during marketing and recruitment campaigns, and during the application process. It collects personal information from current students at various times and in various ways throughout their tenure with the College. It may collect personal information from alumni after their tenure at the College. It collects personal information from staff at various times and in various ways in the course of the employment relationship.

Personal information is collected and used for a number of reasons. In the case of prospective students, information is collected and used primarily for the purpose of making admissions-related decisions, including initial contact with the student, the creation, processing and maintenance of student applications, acceptance and registration with the College. In the case of students whose applications are accepted, and current students of the College, information collected before or after enrollment is also collected for the purposes of administering the student’s studies at the College, and to assist the College in providing academic and other services to the student. Information collected from prospective or current students before or after enrollment may also be used for the purposes of statistical analysis, research and marketing. It may also be aggregated, linked to other data, or otherwise used by the College for the purposes of reviewing, improving and developing College programs, policies, and recruitment strategies, measuring program performance and assessing future program needs. In the case of College staff, information is collected primarily for the purpose of managing the employment relationship.
Personal information may also be used or disclosed for purposes reasonably consistent with these purposes. Specific purposes for the collection of information will be set out at the time of collection where required and where distinct from the above. If no purpose is indicated, the information is collected and will be used for the above purposes, or purposes reasonably consistent with those set out above, subject to the provisions of FIPPA.

The College will use or disclose personal information where reasonably necessary to achieve the purposes for which it was collected, or where authorized or required by law to do so. The College may also make available personal information, as required, to third parties who provide services reasonably necessary to the College’s operations, or to the achievement of the purposes stated above. On occasions, personal information may be collected, used and/or disclosed in jurisdictions outside of Ontario. Personal information in different databases in the custody or control of the College may also be linked or aggregated in order to achieve the purposes set out above.

By providing your personal information to the College, you consent to the use or disclosure of personal information as set out above and to the extent necessary to fulfill these purposes. You have a right to withdraw your consent to the use or disclosure of your personal information, however this may have an impact on the College’s ability to provide services to you, including in the case of current students your ability to continue in your studies at the College. Students wishing to withdraw consent in full or in part to the use or disclosure of their personal information should contact the FOI Coordinator for more information on the consequences of withdrawing consent.

The College will take all reasonable measures to safeguard personal information in its control, including but not limited to physical, technical, and operational measures. The College will require, by contract or otherwise, that any third party service provider to whom personal information is transferred has adequate policies and safeguards in place to protect that information. The College will ensure that information which is disposed of in accordance with College policies and all applicable regulations is destroyed securely and in a manner which protects the privacy of the information holder.

You have a right of access to your personal information in the control of the College, subject to the terms of FIPPA and its regulations. To make such a request, or if you have Questions about this Statement or about the College’s personal information practices please contact:

Freedom of Information Coordinator
1385 Woodroffe Avenue, Room C548,
Ottawa, Ontario, K2G 1V8.
FOIcoordinator@algonquincollege.com
Telephone 613-727-4723 Ext. 6407

If you have a complaint about the College’s handling of your personal information, please contact the FOI Coordinator. If your complaint is not resolved to your satisfaction, FIPPA provides a mechanism for independent review by contacting the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario.
