Ottawa Campus

Our Program

Learn theoretical foundations and practical techniques to help learners develop proficiency in ESL.

The one-year Teachers of English as a Foreign Language - International Ontario College Graduate Certificate program prepares you, through hands-on and theoretical experience, to teach English as a Foreign Language (EFL).

Gain specialized knowledge in English as a Foreign Language methodology, teaching techniques, curriculum design and evaluation that will prepare you to teach EFL to adult learners internationally. Take classes ranging from, but not limited to:

- pedagogical grammar
- language learning and culture
- teaching reading and writing
- adult literacy/beginner ESL

Upon completion of this program, your credential is recognized by TESL and TEFL, which means you have the ability to pursue careers teaching ESL/EFL in Canada and abroad.

Graduates may find employment opportunities teaching EFL to both children and adults, in elementary and postsecondary schools. You might also pursue careers with postsecondary institutions, and in the private sector.

Course Descriptions

TSL0011 Assessment and Evaluation in Second Language Teaching
Students learn the basic principles, procedures and techniques of assessing and evaluating ESL students' language proficiency. As they practise the evaluation of learner performance in reading, writing, listening and speaking, students also explore alternative methods of evaluating language proficiency, as well as standardized language testing.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Co-requisite(s): none

TSL5250 Methodology in Teaching English as a Second/Foreign Language

Students identify the characteristics of the adult learner, examine historical and current methods in second language teaching, explore the contexts of adult learning and teaching, and become familiar with the basics of designing and implementing lesson plans. Students also work with Canadian Language Benchmarks.

Prerequisite(s): none
Co-requisite(s): none

TSL5251 Language Learning and Culture

Students develop an intercultural perspective in teaching ESL. Students become reflective teachers by critically exploring how culture is reflected in language and discussing the relevance of their own and their students’ culture for classroom teaching. The history and current state of multiculturalism in Canada is examined, as well as the role of English as an international language.

Prerequisite(s): none
Co-requisite(s): none

TSL5252 Pedagogical Grammar

Students develop a basic understanding of the form, function and use of grammar terminology in today's English language classroom. In addition, students acquire basic knowledge of current grammar teaching methodologies and strategies to integrate grammar in the teaching of reading, writing, listening and speaking. Students practise developing and implementing grammar-based lessons and explore various error correction techniques.

Prerequisite(s): none
Co-requisite(s): none

TSL5254 Adult Literacy and Beginner ESL

Students use appropriate techniques and develop curricula for Adult Literacy programs and for beginner levels of ESL. Topics include the teaching of basic skills in reading, writing and survival communication to beginner learners.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Co-requisite(s): none

TSL5255 Teaching Reading and Writing

Students develop a greater understanding of ESL teaching methodologies by the adoption of techniques and strategies for integrating all language skills for the purposes of teaching Reading and Writing. Students also practise planning lessons and review the basic principles of materials development for Reading and Writing courses.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Co-requisite(s): none

TSL5256 Teaching Listening, Speaking and Pronunciation

Students enhance their understanding of ESL teaching methodologies by adopting techniques and strategies for integrating all language skills for the purposes of teaching Listening and Speaking. Students review the sound system of English and learn to design pronunciation activities. Students also practise planning lessons and review the basic principles of materials development for Listening and Speaking courses.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Corerequisite(s): TSL5274

TSL5258 Educational Technology in Second Language Teaching

Students develop an initial understanding of how to use technology in the ESL classroom. By critically evaluating their fit with various educational technologies, students enhance their knowledge of teaching methodologies. Topics such as teaching with language learning software, online language learning applications, Brightspace, other learning management systems and social media and 3D Virtual Learning Environment are explored. Students also practise designing teaching materials using online tools.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Corerequisite(s): none

TSL5259 Practicum

Students observe an adult EFL classroom in their country of residence to enhance their understanding of teaching techniques in a field placement setting. This understanding is enhanced by participation in the teaching process through classroom teaching, small group facilitation, one-on-one tutoring and marking, as well as other teaching-related activities.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Corerequisite(s): none

TSL5260 Curriculum Development in English for Specific Purposes

Students develop a further understanding of ESL teaching methodologies through the exploration of current teaching contexts in English for Specific Purposes (ESP). Students explore content-based instruction in language courses and participate in the development of ESP curricula for existing language programs in Canada and abroad.

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Corerequisite(s): none

TSL5261 Teaching English as a Second/Foreign Language to Young Learners

Pre-service ESL/EFL teachers prepare to support second language learning of children and adolescents. Students identify the characteristics of the child and adolescent second language learner, examine current methods and approaches in teaching a second language to children and adolescents in the context of mainstream pedagogical theories and practices, and create learning activities and tasks for children and adolescents who are English as a second or foreign language learners. Students also explore current English as a foreign language teaching frameworks, such as Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) and Content-Based Instruction (CBI).

Prerequisite(s): TSL5250
Corerequisite(s): none

TSL5274 Introduction to Language and Language Acquisition

Students gain a basic understanding of various systems within language, such as phonology, morphology, syntax and semantics, as well as psychological, social and historical aspects of language. Students also review second language acquisition theories and their relevance to classroom teaching.

Prerequisite(s): none
Corerequisite(s): none
