

Resident's Responsibilities as a Roommate

Your rights have corresponding expectations of behavior within the Residence Community. As a resident and roommate, you have the responsibility to:

- Attempt to resolve your suite, roommate, or community problems on your own before you ask your RA to assist you in the process.
- Respect the rights, privileges and privacy of your roommate, and work with them cooperatively to keep your suite in a clean and tidy condition.
- Respect the rights, privileges and property of all other residents and their guests, and of the neighboring community.
- Read, understand and abide by all guidelines and policies, including the Student Residence Agreement (SRA) and the Residence Community Living Standards (RCLS).

- Take all actions associated with good citizenship, including reporting violations of Residence policies and Algonquin College policies to an RA, and taking all reasonable measures to ensure the safety and security of the Residence Community.
- Conduct yourself in a way that ensures the Residence facilities and grounds are kept in good condition, including keeping your assigned room and common areas in a clean and sanitary condition.
- Actively check your mail, cell phone voicemail and email accounts registered with the Residence on a regular basis for messages from Residence Staff.
- Understand that upon signing the SRA and the RCLS you agreed to move rooms for any reason at the discretion of Residence Management.
