

UNIVERSITY of GUELPH

KEMPTVILLE
CAMPUS

CHANGING LIVES
IMPROVING LIFE

The University of Guelph, Kemptville Campus, in partnership with

ALGONQUIN
COLLEGE

announces

Motive Power Pre-Apprenticeship

28-week Program

Women applicants encouraged

OPTIONS:

- Automotive Dealerships and Repair Shops
- Heavy Truck Dealerships
- Construction Companies
- Agricultural Equipment Dealerships
- Bus Fleet Repair Shops
- Heavy Duty Equipment Dealerships and Repair Shops

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

- Learn the fundamentals of the equipment repair service industry
- Includes job readiness training courses
- Curriculum contains all the Level 1 in-school training objectives for 5 Motive Power trades
- Training at Kemptville Campus followed by training at Algonquin College
- 8 week on-the-job practical placement at the end of the program

COST:

FREE for selected applicants.

All tuition, supplies and equipment costs covered by MTCU

The Pre-Apprentice training program is funded by the Government of Ontario

Entrance requirements:

OSSD or equivalent, Mechanical Reasoning Test, personal interview

No previous experience required

April 14 - June 20, 2014

Kemptville Campus

June 23 - August 29, 2014

Algonquin College

September 2 - October 24, 2014

Job Placement

Space is limited. Call today.

Angela Rodger Casey,
(613) 258-8336 ext. 61377
arodgerc@uoguelph.ca

www.kemptvillec.uoguelph.ca